

CULTURE•UP INCUBATOR

WORK AND PLAY IN DOWNTOWN NEW ORLEANS!

Are you a creative working in the cultural industries? An artist, functioning like a business, or a small creative enterprise? Join the new Culture-Up innovation incubator, offering low-cost collaborative office space and support services to help build your sustainability and impact!

The Louisiana Endowment for the Humanities (LEH), and the Louisiana Cultural Economy Foundation (LCEF) are offering office space in an historic building in Downtown New Orleans, providing a setting for cultural innovators to collaborate with peers and leaders within the creative industries. Become a Culture-Up member and develop your ideas and concepts with the bonus of business development assistance and advisory resources through both LEH and LCEF.

SPACES

The Desk ($250 per month): features one (1) workspace within a semi-private, open floor plan design. 1 Permanent large desk-work area, 1 lockable drawer unit and, 1 chair.

The Nook ($450 per month): features two (2) workspaces within a semi-private, open floor plan design. 2 Permanent large desk-work areas, 2 lockable drawer units, and 2 chairs.

AMENITIES

- 12 hour daily access to Culture-Up Incubator for 1 member (7am-7pm),
- access to Wi-Fi, fax and copy machine for 1 member,
- mail box and physical mailing address,
- access to common spaces and conference rooms, and
- discounts on larger meeting spaces and event rentals.

ELIGIBILITY

Open to for-profit, non-profit entities as well as individuals whose work enhances the cultural sector of Louisiana.

JOIN

Email aimee@culturaleconomy.org or austin@leh.org for additional information.

www.culturaleconomy.org/culture-up-initiative
www.leh.org/culture-up

